TransRe Appoints Global Head Of Business Development

Kyle Rhodes to enhance and develop global customer and broker relationships

NEW YORK, N.Y., July 17, 2017 – Kyle Rhodes has been appointed Global Head of Business Development for TransRe. In this newly created role, Kyle will support TransRe’s business unit leaders and underwriting teams to bring added value to key customers and brokers, and in turn develop additional profitable growth for the Company. He will look to build stronger, strategic alliances with targeted customers and brokers through bespoke planning, and the facilitation of more frequent and deeper engagement with senior broker and client executives to identify opportunities and initiatives. Rhodes will also assist in the delivery of TransRe’s access to third party capital for clients.

Kyle has been with TransRe for 11 years, where he excelled in a number of leadership roles, prior to which he spent 9 years with Employers Re.
