TransRe Munich Hosts Liability Discussion

4th Munich Forum Focuses On Blockchain, Telematics and Advanced Manufacturing Processes: Continues to Attract Significant Customer Interest and Support

NEW YORK, N.Y., April 27, 2017 – TransRe hosted over fifty local customers, brokers and advisors from Austria, Germany, Poland and Switzerland to discuss the latest underwriting and claims developments in casualty/liability lines of business.

The TransRe team, together with external legal experts, provided updates on:

- Telematics and drones
- Cyber and the Darknet
- 3D/4D/5D printing for manufacturing

The forum attendees engaged in a number of lively discussions around the insurance implications of these developments, and the overall feedback from the attendees was very positive. TransRe will continue to bring thoughtful, insightful and practical analyses to the attention of clients and advisors.
