TransRe Hosts 9th Biennial International Management Seminar

Welcomes Clients And Staff To A Week Of Discussions Under The Theme “Partnership for Success”

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 2015 – TransRe recently welcomed participants from around the world to Its International Management Seminar in Tarrytown, NY. The program is designed to educate, inform and raise awareness of global issues facing the industry, while sharing different perspectives and considering innovative solutions. Since the program’s inception in 1998, over 250 clients from Europe, Asia, Latin America, and North America have attended.

This year’s participants included underwriting, risk management and finance executives as well as ceded re buyers. They were joined by TransRe executives to discuss shifting trends in (re)insurance markets, risk management best practices, and change-leadership in different business environments. Educational sessions were followed by speakers and round-table conversations that included members of TransRe’s senior leadership team. The week ended with a discussion of the current reinsurance landscape hosted by CEO Mike Sapnar.

Participant feedback was positive and recognized TransRe’s commitment to develop strong client relationships and to share industry-related expertise, experience and perspectives.
