TransRe Co-Hosts 3rd Annual Shanghai Forum

Local regulators, industry bodies and academics join discussion of risk management's role in Shanghai's development as an international insurance and reinsurance center

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 6, 2016 – TransRe was grateful for the support of the China Insurance Regulatory Commission, Insurance Society of China, Shanghai Insurance Institute and Shanghai Insurance Association for ensuring the success of the most recent Shanghai Forum. This year's forum had a risk management theme. As well as TransRe's own expert speakers, the audience of local insurance executives heard from :

Yao Qinghai, Chairman of the Insurance Society of China
Zheng Yang, Director General of Shanghai Municipal Government Financial Services Office
Pei Guang, Secretary General of Party Committee and Commissioner of CIRC Shanghai Bureau
Gao Zhiying, Chairwoman of Shanghai Insurance Institute
Yan Jianjun, Deputy Director of Research for China's Academy of Social Science Fin. Research Inst.
Meng Long, Member of Party Committee, Chief Supervisory Board of China Insurance Invest. Co. Ltd
Prof. Guo Zhenhua, Dean of Insurance Dept. at Shanghai University of International Business & Economics
Prof. Zhong Ming, Dean of Insurance Department at Shanghai University of Finance and Economics

TransRe was also grateful for the involvement of local global peers and customers:

Michael Yu, CEO of Zurich General Insurance Company (China) Ltd
Stefan Sowietski, CEO of AXA Tianping P&C Insurance Co.'s Corporate Solutions Business Unit
Zhang Qing, PICC's Chief Risk Officer and General Manager of Reinsurance Department
Zhang Li, Head of Risk Management of Ping An P&C Insurance Company

Once again, the forum received significant local television, print and on-line coverage, in recognition of the importance of Shanghai's development as a global (re)insurance center.
