TransRe Appoints New Head of Cyber Liability

Elizabeth Geary to continue development of global portfolio and analytics

NEW YORK, N.Y., April 2, 2018 – Elizabeth Geary has been promoted to lead TransRe's global Cyber Liability Team. In the role Liz will manage the existing book of business, oversee all risk analytics around cyber exposures, and develop new research, products and services to better inform clients and allow them to identify and protect against emerging cyber risks.

Liz joined TransRe in 2003 and since then she has held increasingly responsible underwriting and risk management roles in both specialty casualty and property. This diverse experience will serve her well as she leads the continuing effort to build out a portfolio of rapidly evolving cyber exposures.
