

For further information, please contact:

James D Whitelaw

415 399 5904

TransRe Completes Planned Toronto Leadership Change Stephanie Russell Appointed Canadian Chief Agent Following Cam MacDonald's Retirement

NEW YORK, N.Y., December 6, 2019 – With effect from March 31, 2020, TransRe has named Stephanie Russell as Chief Agent for its Canadian operations. Stephanie takes over as Chief Agent from Cam MacDonald, who is retiring. In her new role, Stephanie will report to Ken Brandt, President of TransRe's Americas business.

Stephanie joined TransRe Toronto from Aviva Canada Inc. in 2015, to lead our local actuarial department, and was promoted to Appointed Actuary in 2016. Stephanie has a BScE from Queens University in Applied Mathematics and Mechanical Engineering. She is a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries (FCIA) and a Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society (FCAS).

Stephanie's appointment will follow the retirement of Cam MacDonald. Cam joined our Toronto office in 1990 from Canadian General Insurance Company. Since then he has built a solid team that has strong working relationships with customers and brokers alike. Cam has led his team through challenging market conditions, with vigor and professionalism. The TransRe family thanks Cam for his tireless efforts, and we offer our very best wishes for the future.

About TransRe

Established in 1977, TransRe is the brand name for Transatlantic Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries (including Transatlantic Reinsurance Company). TransRe, wholly owned by Alleghany Corporation is a reinsurance organization headquartered in New York with operations worldwide. TransRe offer the capacity, expertise and creativity necessary to structure programs across the full spectrum of property and casualty risks. Please visit www.transre.com for more information.