TransRe Announces New Underwriting Organization

Appointments Sharpen Portfolio Analysis And Consistency, While Maintaining Client/Broker Relationships

NEW YORK, N.Y., July 6, 2021 – TransRe has changed its underwriting structure and promoted key leaders as follows:

Paul McKeon, is promoted to President, Regional Markets. In his new global role, McKeon will lead TransRe's underwriting and market operations. The Regional teams reporting to McKeon will continue to be responsible for executing local market strategies, deal underwriting, marketing and client/broker development. As part of this change Kyle Rhodes is promoted to President, North America. Rhodes' most recently led TransRe's Asia Pacific region. Andy Taylor has been promoted to lead TransRe's International team which includes the UK, Europe and Asia Pacific regions. Jorge Beltran continues to lead our Latin American region. Rhodes, Taylor and Beltran will all report directly to McKeon.

Elizabeth Geary is promoted to President, Global Portfolio Management. In her new global role, Geary will lead a team focused on underwriting portfolio analysis, including delivering technical insights to support our local teams and their clients and brokers. The underwriting portfolio management team reporting to Geary will include Lisa Moser, Global Property Leader, Brian Finlay, Global Professional Liability Leader and Keith Trigg, Global Casualty leader. Geary will also retain her current role as CUO for North America, supporting Rhodes and his team.

As announced in April, Paul Bonny was promoted to Executive Vice Chairman reporting directly to Ken Brandt, President & CEO of TransRe. Paul McKeon and Elizabeth Geary will also report directly to Brandt.
