

Claims – Data Integrity Project

We have the following job opportunity in our New York City office:

Transatlantic Reinsurance Company (www.transre.com) is a leading international property and casualty reinsurance organization headquartered in New York with operations worldwide.

The Internship Program

- The program will be 10 weeks and will run from early June 2026 through early August 2026
- Weekly work schedule will be 35 hours and follow a hybrid schedule, with 3 days in-office and 2 days remote. All interns will be in-office on Tuesdays and Wednesdays
- During the program, the intern group will attend a series of educational sessions to provide them with perspectives on our company and the broader reinsurance industry
- Training and social activities will be structured into the program, allowing for networking opportunities with peers and colleagues

Description

This role will allow you to gain exposure to the Claims function through providing crucial data integrity support on TransRe's in-house claims management system. The Intern's responsibilities and learnings will include, but not be limited to:

- Reviewing and validating historical claim coding within the Claims module
- Documenting findings and supporting data clean-up efforts to improve overall data accuracy
- Assisting in maintaining high data quality standards to support analytics and reporting initiatives, including PowerBI, AI, and other data-driven tools
- Supporting additional claims-related projects as assigned by Claims leadership

Requirements

- Intermediate Microsoft Excel skills including performing calculations on large data sets, creating graphs and tables, inputting data, sorting data, and utilizing basic formulas
- Availability to participate in the entirety of the 10-week program
- Ability to work in-person at our offices located at 165 Broadway, New York, NY 10006
